

PUSHPKANT SAHU

PROFILE

I'm an electrical engineering student with a strong interest in technology and design. My background as a WordPress freelancer has instilled a dedicated work ethic and an entry-level proficiency in web development. Alongside this, I possess hands-on experience with 3D modeling, bringing engineering and creativity. Eager to contribute my passion for innovation to engineering projects, I'm committed to continuous learning and pushing boundaries in pursuit of meaningful solutions.
